St Anne with Holy Trinity, Brondesbury

Confidently sharing the love of Christ

Easter Sunday— 16th April 2017

*Welcome to St Anne's today—it is great to have you with us. St Anne's is the local Church of England parish church and we are a very diverse group of people. We hope that you will feel welcome in our worship today. If you are new, please do say hello—we would love to get to know you. If you are unsure where to find something, or about what is going on, please do ask. We will be happy to help. Our worship style is quite formal, but we hope relaxed-as we come to worship God in our midst. Please do join us for morning tea after the service and for our Easter Egg Hunt!

Today we celebrate and give thanks for the victory of Christ over death and the powers that threaten to destroy our world. Last night we lit the Pascal Candle that symbolises Christ as the light of the world, bringing the light of God into the darkness and a great hymn of praise is sung. As the children of the new Covenant we will renew our commitment to Christ by renewing our baptismal vows and we celebrate Christ's Resurrection in the first Eucharist of Easter. Today we proclaim our faith with joy and hope for all the world to hear and share.

A Priest will greet us. Please stand when the bell is rung. We sing our Processional Hymn as the Clergy enter.

*We sing together: 381 – Jesus Christ is Risen today

Alleluia! Christ is risen.
He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

In the name of the (+) Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen

The Lord be with you. And also with you

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, 'Let there be light'; and there was light (Gen 1:1)

The Service for the Feast Day is Introduced

We make our confession to God.

Christ our Passover lamb has been sacrificed for us.

Let us therefore rejoice by putting away all malice and evil and confessing our sins with a sincere and true heart

Silence is kept

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you and against our neighbour in thought and word and deed, through negligence, through weakness, through our own deliberate fault. We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us, forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name. Amen.

We sing together.

Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy,
Christ have mercy, Christ have mercy,
Lord have mercy, Lord have mercy.

We are reminded of God's forgiveness.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.
He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the eternal covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia! Alleluia!
In the name of Christ. Amen. Alleluia! Alleluia!

We remain standing to sing our final hymn 751- Thine be the Glory during which the clergy depart.

Please do join us downstairs for Easter Hunt and other treats as we rejoice in the resurrection of Christ and in the love of God.

God of Life, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection have delivered us from the power of our enemy: grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lamb of God,

resurrection of Your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in Him: grant that we, being

Him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen

Please be seated.

THE FIRST READING; Acts 10: 34-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.' This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

We remain seated as we sing Hymn 31 – Alleluia, Alleluia

THE SECOND READING (Colossians 3: 1-4)

A reading from the letter to the Colossians

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

The priest continues singing the Eucharistic Prayer alone till the Sanctus and Benedictus

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of Your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The priest then continues the Eucharistic Prayer

Great is the mystery of Faith:

Christ has died:

Christ is risen:

Christ will come again.

*And then continues till the end at which we all respond. Amen.
Silence is kept for a moment and then we are invited to join in the prayer that Jesus taught his friends to say.*

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The president breaks the consecrated bread.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

The Priest will introduce the peace with suitable words...

The risen Christ came and stood among His disciples and said, Peace be with you. Then they were glad when they saw the Lord. Alleluia! The peace of the risen Christ be always with you and also with you. Alleluia!

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

and all may exchange a sign of peace, greeting one another with these words

The Lord is risen Answer He is risen indeed.

We share the peace with those around us until the offertory Hymn is announced. We sing the offertory 33 – Alleluia, Sing to Jesus during which a collection is taken.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Lord of life, with unbounded joy we offer you our sacrifice of praise. As we are fed with the bread of heaven may we know your resurrection power; through Christ our risen Lord. Amen.

Blessed are you, Lord, God of the universe, you bring forth bread from the earth.

Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, Lord, God of the universe, you create the fruit of the vine.

Blessed be God for ever.

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.

The Gospel is processed to the middle of the Church as we sing Alleluia (Hymn 29 verse 1). please stand.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia ...

The Gospel is announced. (John 20:1-18)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

At the end.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, O Christ.

The Gospel is carried back to the Altar as we sing Alleluia.

THE SERMON

Please be seated.

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

The president invites us all to renew our baptismal promises:

Dear Friends, through the paschal mystery we have been buried with Christ in baptism, so that we may rise with Him to a new life. Now that we have completed our Lenten observance let us renew the promises we made in baptism affirming our allegiance to Christ, and our rejection of all that is evil. Therefore I ask these questions:

Do you turn to Christ?

I turn to Christ.

Do you repent of your sins?

I repent of my sins.

Do you renounce evil?

I renounce evil.

And now I ask you to make the profession of Christian faith into which you were baptized, and in which you live and grow.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, who made the world?

I believe and trust in Him.

Do you believe and trust in his Son Jesus Christ, who redeemed us all?

I believe and trust in Him.

Do you believe and trust in his Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God?

I believe and trust in Him.

This is the faith of the Church.

This is our faith.

We believe and trust in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Almighty God, we thank You for our fellowship in the household of faith with all those who have been baptized in Your name. Keep us faithful to our baptism, and so make us ready for that day when the whole creation shall be made perfect in Your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The priest sprinkles the congregation with Holy Water as a sign of our membership, through baptism, of the people of God. It is customary to make the sign of the cross when being sprinkled.

We kneel or sit as we prayer for the Church, the World and for this community. During the prayers we use the response:

In joy and hope let us pray to the Father.

That our risen Saviour may fill us with the joy of his glorious and life-giving resurrection, we pray to the Lord

Hear our prayer.

That isolated and persecuted churches may find fresh strength in the good news of Easter , we pray to the Lord.
